Financial Institutions Commission Hiring Initiative

An opportunity to work for the most comprehensive regulatory agency in the province and help protect the financial interests of all British Columbians!

The Financial Institutions Commission of British Columbia (FICOM) is a Vancouver-based regulatory agency of the British Columbia Government. Our four pillars of responsibility are pension plans, mortgage brokers, financial institutions (including credit unions, insurance and trust companies) and the Credit Union Deposit Insurance Corporation. For more information about FICOM visit our webpage.

We take a risk-based approach to financial services supervision fitted to the dynamic nature of the sectors we oversee. Our primary focus has remained consistent as FICOM evolved over the last 25 years - to safeguard the interests of depositors, policyholders, beneficiaries and pension plan members.

We have over 12 full-time, permanent finance positions available in Vancouver as part of the Financial Institution Commission:

Managing Director, Credit Union Supervision (3 positions) - Band 5 - REQ 44753
Senior Supervisor, Credit Union Supervision (3 positions) - Band 3 – REQ 44751
Supervisor, Credit Union Supervision (4 positions) - Band 2 – REQ 44755
Examiner, Financial Institutions (2 positions) - Band 2 – REQ 44255
