“The Psychology of Fraudsters”

What makes a fraudster tick? What are the psychological factors that can be the catalysts for fraud? What are the behavioural red flags that can indicate a person might become a fraudster, or already is a fraudster?

Forensic chartered accountant Charles Smedmor will present this model; one that can provide valuable insights and assessment inputs into these questions. The model, developed in conjunction with a psychologist, drills down on the behaviour of fraudsters and ... more at acfi.ca
